The New York Clothing House, of Port Huron, have a change of adv. in this issue. Read it. When in the city call on Jim Cooper who is employed in this store, he will be pleased to see you.

Miss Sophia Wear has opened a dress-making shop in the building lately vacated by Percie Johnson one door north of post-office, and is prepared to do all kinds of plain and fancy dressmaking at reasonable rates. Give her a call.

C. H. Niggeman has had the partition in his jewelry store moved back about ten or fifteen feet and now has more room in which to display goods. He has the largest and finest stock of holiday presents ever shown in the village.

Don't!—If a dealer offers you a bottle of Salvation Oil without labels, or wrappers, or in a mutilated or defaced package, don't touch it—don't buy it at any price, you can rest assured that there is something wrong—it may be a dangerous and worthless counterfeit. Insist upon getting a perfect, unbroken, genuine package.

The EXPOSITOR will be $1.50 per year to those who do not pay up by January 1st, 1889.

Just a little sunshine and a good deal of rain is about the kind of weather to give a man a pain.

Allan Strong and family have moved into the lower part of the house lately vacated by Ed. Keefer and family, and Mrs. Gillam now occupies the upper rooms. Mr. Keefer has moved his family to Canada.

Miss Percie Johnson has moved her stock into her new building, two doors south of Braidwood's, where she has more commodious quarters, and is now comfortably settled. Notice her change of ad. in this issue.

There is no more fruitful source of disease than vitiated blood. It involves every organ and function of the body, and if not immediately corrected by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, sooner or later leads to fatal results. Be warned in time.

Elder J. H. Paton will preach in Duffie's hall next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and evening at 7:30. As usual a cordial invitation is given to all who desire and love the truth, to come out and hear him. Leave prejudices at home. Hear and then judge.

The rising generation of the village raised four poles last week. Two republican, one democrat and one prohibition, making fifteen or more poles which have been raised in the village during the campaign. What village in the state this size can beat it?

The homeliest man in Brockway Centre, as well as the handsomest, and others are invited to call on any druggist and get FREE a trial bottle of Kemp's Balsam for the throat and lungs, a remedy that is selling entirely upon its merits and is guaranteed to relieve and cure all chronic and acute coughs, asthma, bronchitis and consumption. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

Here is a little matter that ought to be improved upon: "A" writes "B" a letter and forgets to put on a stamp. The Postmaster writes to "B" that upon receipt of stamp, he will forward letter. It cost "B" five cents besides his time, to get the letter, and the time he is obliged to wait may make the letter of no value. It is a small matter but very important. Why not send the letter and collect at place of delivery?

The spring and summer of the present year were unusually cold, and the fall seems to be following in the same line. Frosts came very early in Northern Dakota and Minnesota, destroying the unripe wheat in large sections of the country, and now over a foot of snow is reported to have fallen in the same regions. What the winter will be cannot be safely predicted, but some of the weather-wise are offering comfort by the prophecy that it will be mild and pleasant.

The EXPOSITOR will be $1.00 per year, STRICTLY IN ADVANCE, after Jan. 1st, 1889, or $1.50 at the end of the year. We desire to get this permanently fixed on the minds of our subscribers before Jan. 1, in order that there may be no misunderstanding. Our present subscription price is too little when we are compelled to wait one, two and three years for it, therefore we make this change and offer an inducement for subscribers to pay in advance. Now let us hear the dollars tinkle in the till.

The fall opening of the Bee Hive Bazaar, Oct. 27th, at Port Huron, was said to be the grandest affair ever seen in Port Huron. The evening display was very fine. Between four thousand and five thousand people visited that establishment during the day and evening, and all were delighted. It was without question the biggest and finest display of holiday goods and bazaar goods ever seen in eastern Michigan. Those in search of holiday goods and want a large and varied stock to select from will visit the Bee Hive, Port Huron. See their big advertisement in another column.

We are often asked to publish a card of thanks, expressing gratitude for assistance rendered by friends and neighbors during sickness that results in death. People seem to forget that the obligation is just as great when the object of care and attention recovers, and a card of thanks is never thought of then. Another fact which is still more important that is overlooked by families who have received favors, is that no matter how much assistance may be rendered by friends in time of distress, it is no more than a humane act and the Christian duty of every person. Do not waste your time in writing idiotic "cards of thanks" which at best is only a hollow symbol. Remember the kindness rendered, and, when your neighbor is afflicted, give him similar assistance. In this way, and in no other, can you discharge your obligation.—Ex.
